Deadly Appraisal

An Antiques Roadshow for Mystery Fans

Deadly Appraisal

Josie thought hosting a charity Gala would be good business, the right thing to do for her community, and fun!

Except that the charity's executive, Maisy Gaylor, drops dead, and all those in the prep area, including Josie herself, are on the short list of suspects.

Filled with antiques lore, you'll enjoy spending time with Josie as she uses her knowledge of antiques to solve the crime.

"Beautifully crafted, thoroughly enjoyable."

Margaret Maron, author of Winter's Child

"Josie is a multifaceted, vulnerable character... the story is framed with details of the antiques business, and numerous well-developed secondary characters populate the book." Booklist

Agatha Award nominee for Best First Novel:

Consigned to Death, an Antiques Roadshow for mystery fans, now
