

GETTING PUBLISHED AND STAYING PUBLISHED

Saturday, September 27th at 6 PM ▪ Elda's on Lark Street, Albany, NY

Sponsored by The Mystery Writers of America/New York Chapter and the Mavens of Mayhem chapter of the Sisters In Crime

Hosted by Robert Knightly ▪ Moderated by Jane K. Cleland

Reservations Required (see below) ▪ ALL ARE WELCOME

Susan Novotny owns the Book House of Stuyvesant Plaza and Market Block Books, in downtown Troy. In 2006 Novotny opened The Troy Book Makers, a “book-on-demand” digital printing operation.

Shelly Reuben is the author of Edgar-nominated Julian Solo and five arson-themed novels including: Origin and Cause, Spent Matches, Weeping, Tabula Rasa, and The Skirt Man. Shelly is president of Charles G. King Associates and an IAAI Certified Arson Investigator. Shelly served as secretary on the National Board of the Mystery Writers of America.

Michele Slung is an author, reviewer, and editor. She's written two anthologies and has reviewed crime fiction for the New York Times, USA Today and National Public Radio. Also, she's worked as an editor with many writers, among them Stuart M. Kaminsky. She's also the screening reader for the annual Best American Mysteries series, overseen by Otto Penzler.

Tom Schreck has written on topics as broad as boxing, business, pets, fitness, psychology, relationships, golf, diners, drive-ins, and prison. A former director of an inner city drug clinic and now a world championship boxing official, Schreck combined his varied experience to write On the Ropes.

Sheila York's first novel, Star Struck Dead, was nominated as Best First Mystery by the Romantic Times and won a Daphne du Maurier award as Best Mainstream Mystery/Suspense novel. The sequel, A Good Knife's Work, will be published in 2009.

Please call Robert Knightly for your dinner choices. You can reach him at:

(518) 426-1199 or
(518) 424-4338.

Reservations and checks must be received by 9/18

Send your check to:

Robert Knightly
210 Elm Street
Albany, NY 12202